MRS. TURNER'S 6TH GRADE 4-H CLUB

Mrs. Turner's 6th Grade 4-H Club met October 17, 1977. Our president, Jay Chenault, opened the meeting by appointing Ricky Garrison to lead us in the American pledge and Todd Scruggs to lead us in the 4-H pledge. The recreation leaders, Mary Stitt, Scott Drinkard and Todd Thompson, led us in a game and we sang some songs. We talked about the Bike-A-Thon which was rescheduled to Sunday, October 23, 1977. We talked about the Share-in-the-Fun program and we looked at some slides about it. We also chose our 4-H project books for this year.

Our president then adjourned the meeting.

GLADSTONE RESCUE SQUAD HONORS MEMBER

Mrs. Dorman J. Banton (Elizabeth) was recently honored at a covered dish supper given by the Gladstone Rescue Squad members.

Willie B. Cyrus, president, presented a plaque, shown in above photo, to Mrs. Banton in recognition for dedicated service to the rescue squad.

The Gladstone Rescue Squad was organized August 1967 with 19 members. Mrs. Banton is one of the six charter members of this organization.

She has served as president, vice-president, and on various committees.

The Gladstone Rescue Squad has 17 members and is located on Route 60 in the old Gladstone Elementary School in Nelson County.

Herncall Elected To Membership In FLI

Dan Herncall, president of Falling River Realty Company, Inc. of Appomattox, has recently been elected to membership in the Farm and Land Institute (FLI). This announcement was made by Cyril M. Knefler, AFLM, president of the Institute which is an affiliate of the National Association of Realtors. Mr. Herncall is also a member of the Lynchburg Board of Realtors and the Virginia Association of Realtors.

Members of the Institute are Realtors who specialize in selling, managing, appraising, and developing land for others. They are involved in farm, ranch, timber, range, and recreational land, as well as in suburban and urban land for development and redevelopment.

Realtor Herncall joins more than 5,000 other FLI members throughout North America who, in addition to subscribing to the Realtors Code of Ethics, support the high standards of conduct and experience that directly relate to their specialty as established by the FLI Board of Governors.

Among the activities, the Institute helps each member be of maximum service to the prospective purchaser of land by keeping him up-to-date with a monthly news publication and through educational courses designed to broaden the members knowledge of his field. FLI awards the designation Accredited Farm and Land Member to members who successfully complete prescribed education, service, and other requirements.

Appomattox County Extension Homemakers make plans for a busy 1978. Seated (l. to r.) Mrs. Ethel Evans, chairman-elect; Mrs. Isabelle Coleman, chairman; Mrs. Margaret Lee, secretary; Mrs. Katie Martin, reporter; Mrs. Geraldine Marshall, treasurer; Mrs. Dixie Staten. Those standing are Mrs. Georgie Fleshman, Mrs. Charlotte Jones, Mrs. Louise Flunkett, Mrs. Ruby Williamson, Mrs. Annette Alvis, Mrs. Joan Ranson and Mrs. Tommy Fleshman.

Extension Homemakers Plan For 78

The Appomattox County Extension Homemakers Council and Club Presidents met at Maude's Restaurant Oct. 11, 1977 at 10:30 a.m. There were 14 present, and 8 clubs were represented.

A devotion was given by Mrs. Georgie Fleshman using the subject "Love". The minutes of the August meeting were read and approved. Geraldine Marshall, treasurer, reported a balance of $66.82 in treasury.

We were reminded of the reading contest on "Why I Like to Read", using 150 words or less. We will hear more about this in a later Newsletter. It is now time to renew The Homemaker magazines. Each person is to send in her own renewal.

Books have been collected and are ready to be sent to the flood victims in Southwestern Virginia. Plans are in the making to collect and send other items at a later date. Geraldine Marshall was asked to order 10 more cookbooks. We were reminded of the various scholarships that are avilable to high school pupils.

Several members are planning to attend one day of the Fall Conference to be held at Natural Bridge, Va., Nov. 1-3.

A committee of Extension Homemakers will meet with the Board of Supervisors on Friday, Oct. 14 at 2 p.m. to discuss the idea of having a county flag designed. Those serving on this committee are Ethel Evans, Isabelle Coleman and Charlotte Jones. The Home Extension Agent, Shirley Walton, will also work with them.

The Christmas Open House Committee has decided on "Christmas Treasures" as our 1977 theme. Mrs. Dixie Staten and Mrs. Vicki Jamerson are co-chairmen of this event. Each club is asked to provide 6 - 8 dozen cookies , and three hostesses for the time they are scheduled to work during the week. A copy of the schedule has been sent to each president. The Open House will be in the Extension Office from Nov. 7 - 11.

Many suggestions have been received for 1978 Workshops. We will be kept informed of the subjects and dates for these.

Programs of Work chosen for 1978 are: January, Safety on Ice and Snow; February, Landscaping; March, Sewing Update; April, Versatility with Sheets; May, Herbs and Spices; June, Community Resources; July, Club Choice; August, Club Choice; September, Breads of the World; October, Safe Use of Stoves and Fireplaces; November, Home Decorations for Christmas and Gifts of Long Ago, and December, Club Choice.

The various committee chairmen will be announced later. We were asked to begin thinking now about a float for Railroad Day for 1978. Friendship cards were sent to Virginia Gillaspie, Lorene Lucado, and Margaret Ferguson.

There will be a call meeting soon of officers to fill out our yearly reports.

MRS. MELVIN GLENN GILES, JR.
the former Miss Stephanie Meadow Miller

Wed In Military Ceremony

Fairfax Chapel at Fort Belvoir was the setting for the afternoon wedding of Miss Stephanie Meadow Miller and Melvin Glenn Giles, Jr. The ceremony took place on September 17th at 2 o'clock

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Jack Montgomery of Alexandria and the late David Miller. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Giles of Route 5, Lynchburg.

The bride was escorted and given in marriage by her stepfather. Colonel Jack Montgomery, U.S.A., ret.

She wore a bridal gown of original design. It was fashioned of white satin organza and lace, with a long veil of illusion and lace, matching that which adorned the formal length gown. She carried a bouquet of gardenias, stephanotis, baby's breath and ivy with tiny ivy streamers.

Miss Terryl DeJarnette of Annandale was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Eugene L. Carlisle of Annandale and Mrs. Delmar L. Dayton of Richmond. The attendants' formal length gowns were empire waisted with full flowing, floor pleated skirts attached to a short bodice with tiny spaghetti straps. A short chiffon capelet covered the shoulders. The honor attendant was attired in soft peach color and carried a delicately designed nosegay of tiny feathered peach color carnations and baby's breath, which was surrounded by delicate lace. The bridesmaids wore mint green and also carried nosegays to match the color of their gowns.

Thomas L. Loflin of Rustburg was best man. Serving as groomsmen were Richard Mause of McLean and William Calohan of Hummelstown, Pa.

Following the ceremony Colonel and Mrs. Montgomery entertained with a reception at the Fort Belvoir Officers Club, which overlooks the Potomac River, and later in the evening with a buffet dinner at their home in Alexandria.

The bride was graduated from Mount Vernon High School in Fairfax County and received a B.A. degree in communications from Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University in May. She is employed in Alexandria. Her grandparents are Mrs. Charles H. Chancey of Milford, Ohio and the late Mr. Chaney and the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Miller of Cincinnati.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Rustburg High School and will be a candidate in May for a B.A. degree in geography with a speciality in catography from Virginia Polytechnic Institute and Southern University, where he has been a dean's list student. He was selected to the Student Cooperative Program and is currently employed by the Federal Government in McLean. His grandparents are the late Dr. and Mrs. Guy Cabell of "Clifton Plantation" in Appomattox County and of Lynchburg and the late Mr. and Mrs. William R. Giles of Lynchburg.

They left on a southern wedding trip and later plan a trip to Greece. The couple will live in Annandale.

On Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Giles were hosts for an after rehearsal dinner, entertaining at the Mount Vernon Inn at Mount Vernon in honor of Miss Miller and their son, Glenn.

Guests dining Friday evening after the wedding rehearsal included Colonel and Mrs. Montgomery, the bride parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Maxwell of Appomattox, sister and brother-in-law of the bride groom, Mr. and Mrs. Michael C. Miller of Sterling Park, brother and sister-in-law of the bride, Miss Alice N. Cabell of New York City, aunt of the bridegroom, members of the bridal party, out of town relatives and friends of the honored couple. Among guests at the wedding and reception on Saturday were many from Lynchburg and the area.

Ferguson Reunion Held

The families of the late Charlie and Jimmie Ferguson held their first reunion since 1956 on Sunday, October 9th at the Pamplin Firehouse.

A crowd of approximately 200 people attended. There was plenty of good food and people came from Pamplin, Appomattox, Lynchburg, Farmville, Richmond, Evergreen, Ohio, Spout Spring, Victoria and Cullen.

Pink Davis from South America, the only living child of Charlie and Jinnie Ferguson and 87 years old was present. She received some nice gifts and a corsage. Herman Richardson also received a nice gift, a monkey. He was thrilled about the gift.

Everyone had a nice time and look forward to next year when they plan to get together once again as a family.

LUCKY CLOVER CLUB HELD MEETING

The Lucky Clover 4-H Club met on October 10, 1977 at the Pamplin Elementary School. Plans were discussed for a Halloween Party.

Mr. Sweet announced the dates for Share-The-Fun and also that he would be checking wildlife feed patches soon. He encouraged members to participate in the Bike-A-Thon.

Many new members attended the October meeting.

For our program, Mr. Sweet showed us slides of the trip taken last summer to South Dakota by some 4-H members.

Refreshments were served and then the meeting adjourned. Janis Richardson, Reporter.

Water Costs Rising

Will you drink 3,000 glasses of water this year? The U.S. government thinks so.

New federal drinking water regulations are based on the assumption that every citizen consumes that much annually, according to the American Water Works Association. It comes to more than 190 gallons.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace W. Coleman, Jr.

Honored On 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Horace W. Coleman, Jr. of Pamplin were honored on their 50th Wedding Anniversary at a reception hosted by their children at the Moose Lodge in Farmville on Saturday evening, October 15, 1977.

Guests present numbered about 100 including their children, sixteen grandchildren and other relatives and many friends coming from California, New York, Pennsylvania, Connecticut, West Virginia, Delaware, North Carolina, and many places in Virginia.

The Colemans were married October 15, 1927 in Galesburg, Illinois. They have five children, sixteen grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. Their one daughter, Mrs. Peyton Owen is from Norfolk; their four sons are Horace W. Coleman, III of Pennsylvania, James Coleman of California, Spencer Coleman of Norfolk, and Edward Coleman of Norfolk.

Congratulations to this fine couple on this happy occasion.

Mrs. Gresham To Speak At Garden Club

Mrs. William F. S. Gresham of Lynchburg will be the guest speaker at the meeting of the Appomattox Garden Club on Monday night, October 24, 7:30 p.m. at the Farmers National Bank, Triangle Plaza Branch. Her topic will be "Landscape Design and Mrs. Gresham's special interests."

Active in both creative and performing arts, Mrs. Gresham has made a considerable contribution to the civic and cultural organizations in Lynchburg and throughout the state.

Landscape design and gardening are Mrs. Gresham's special interests. She attended Landscape Design School and received her graduate certification in 1963 awarded by the National Council of Garden Clubs in cooperation with Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, and continues to return to that institution each summer for further study. She is a past President of the Virginia Council of Accredited Landscape Design Critics.

Mrs. Gresham drew the plans and supervised the planting for the Lynchburg Fine Arts Center grounds and for many homes and apartments in the Lynchburg area. She was commissioned to redesign the garden at General Federation of Women's Club Headquarters in Washington, D. C. in 1965.

The artistic exhibit for Monday will be "Sunrise-Sunset" a Mass design. The horticulture exhibit will include all seasonal plant specimens.

Members are urged to attend and bring with them an artistic design or an horticultural specimen.
